Dues Deduction Update

In recognition of the challenges members are facing during the government shutdown, FEA is pausing all AutoPay dues collections until the shutdown ends.

We understand that this time may bring financial uncertainty, and we want to extend grace and support to every member of our FEA family. If you have questions about your payments or need assistance, please contact your financial institution to explore available options.

Your well-being remains our priority, and we thank you for all that you do.
