Get Prepared for Upcoming Elections

With election season approaching, now is a good time to check that you have the information you need to participate from wherever you are.

For FEA members stationed overseas or otherwise living away from their voting residence, the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP) offers resources specifically for military and overseas voters. Through FVAP, you can find your state's voting requirements and deadlines, request an absentee ballot, locate your election office, and find information about checking the status of your ballot.

Taking a few minutes to review your information now can help you identify anything that needs attention well before applicable deadlines.

Even if you have voted absentee in previous elections, be sure to review the current requirements for your state, as voting procedures and deadlines differ depending on where you vote.

Visit the Federal Voting Assistance Program \(FVAP\) to find information specific to your state and voting situation.

A little preparation now can help you stay informed about the steps and deadlines that apply to you.

In solidarity,
Federal Education Association
