Amanda Marcella Gates Named FEA's 2027 Travelers Award for Teaching Excellence Recipient

FEA is proud to congratulate Amanda Marcella Gates, an English/Language Arts educator at Osan Middle High School in Pyeongtaek, South Korea, on being named FEA's recipient of the 2027 Travelers Award for Teaching Excellence.

Amanda joins a distinguished group of 43 educators from across the country receiving this year's recognition.

The Travelers Awards for Teaching Excellence program recognizes educators who shine in their schools, communities, and professional learning. The program celebrates educators who advocate for their students, their colleagues, and the profession while embracing the diversity of their communities.

Each year, The NEA Foundation provides national recognition to outstanding educators to celebrate excellence in public education and amplify the voices of exemplary teachers as advocates for the profession. All awardees will be celebrated at The NEA Foundation's annual Salute to Excellence in Education Gala in Washington, D.C.

Amanda's recognition is also a wonderful reflection of the dedication and excellence of educators serving military-connected students in DoDEA schools around the world.

Please join FEA in congratulating Amanda Marcella Gates on this outstanding achievement!

In solidarity,
Federal Education Association
