FEA Is Actively Engaging With Management

FEA is aware of the many changes management is currently pursuing and the concerns these changes are creating for our members.

FEA remains actively engaged with management as these changes move forward and continues to address issues affecting our members. We will share additional updates as substantive information becomes available.

For more information about current issues and how they may affect you, please contact your FRS or Local President for additional details.

Thank you for your continued patience and engagement.

Pre-Retired Membership Information: Lock In Today's Retired Membership Rate!

You don't have to be close to retirement to start planning ahead. NEA/FEA Pre-Retired Membership is available to current active members, regardless of how soon you plan to retire.

With Pre-Retired Membership, you make a one-time payment at today's lifetime retired membership rate. When you officially retire, your lifetime NEA/FEA Retired Membership activates. If rates increase before then, you've already locked in the rate you paid.

Here's an example: Suppose you became a Pre-Retired member in 1999 when the lifetime retired membership rate was hypothetically $150. Even if you retired many years later after rates had increased, your lifetime membership would already be paid at the $150 rate you locked in.

Pre-Retired Membership does not replace your active membership. While employed, you must remain an active NEA/FEA member and continue paying your regular annual dues. Your prepaid Retired Membership takes effect when you retire.

It's a simple way to plan ahead, lock in today's rate, and stay connected to your union in retirement.

The $150 figure is hypothetical and is provided for illustration only. It does not represent the actual NEA/FEA lifetime retired membership rate in 1999.*
